GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT STRATA APPLICATIONS

ABOUT NCAT

The NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal (NCAT) is an independent, specialised and accessible service for the fair and timely resolution of disputes according to law. NCAT can make orders under the Strata Schemes Management Act 2015 about disputes or complaints which have not been resolved by mediation.

APPLYING TO NCAT

To apply to NCAT you will need to complete the Strata Application Form and lodge it with the appropriate fee. Visit the NCAT website for the current fees and charges.

Specify the section of the Strata Schemes Management Act 2015 and the orders you want NCAT to make. A full list of orders NCAT can make is attached to this form. You can request more than one order. If you are unsure which order to select, please contact NSW Fair Trading for assistance on 13 32 20.

URGENT APPLICATIONS

If you require an urgent hearing, you can apply to NCAT for an interim order by completing the Strata application for interim orders. An additional fee must also be paid.

MEDIATION

Evidence of attempted mediation must be provided for certain strata applications. Please check the orders list to see if mediation is required for your application.

Attach evidence of attempted mediation with your application. You must apply for mediation with NSW Fair Trading before lodging an application with NCAT.

For more information about mediation contact NSW Fair Trading on 13 32 20.

WHO IS AN 'INTERESTED PERSON'?

Under the Strata Schemes Management Act 2015, the following people are defined as interested persons.

- Owner corporation
- Officer of the owners corporation
- Strata managing agent for the scheme
- Owner of a lot in the scheme, person having an estate or interest in a lot or an occupier of a lot
- Lessor of the scheme (if strata scheme is a leasehold strata scheme)

WHO IS A 'CONNECTED PERSON'?

Please refer to section 7 of the Strata Schemes Management Act 2015 for a full definition of 'connected person'

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER LODGING THE APPLICATION?

Your matter will be listed for conciliation and hearing, or directions hearing, depending on the type of orders you are seeking. You and the other parties will receive a notice of hearing from NCAT specifying the day, time and venue of your hearing.

A copy of your application and any attached documents will also be sent to the other person/s. You should not include any confidential information you do not want disclosed to the other party.

CAN SOMEONE REPRESENT ME?

NCAT Consumer and Commercial Division hearings are conducted as informally as possible, and parties are encouraged to present their own case. You can present your own case or you may apply to NCAT to allow a lawyer or an agent to represent you.

EVIDENCE AND SUPPORTING MATERIALS

At the hearing, you will need to provide evidence to support your application.

The type of information and documents you need to provide to NCAT will depend on the orders you are seeking. Refer to the list of orders attached to this form for the information required.

These documents will be provided to the other party. If they are not included with your application, you will have to bring copies to the hearing for the other party. You should not provide any information you do not want disclosed to the other party.

PRIVACY OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The privacy of personal information is important to NCAT. Personal information is collected to register applications and to make decisions about disputes. All information contained in an application is provided to all parties, including home/business addresses, phone and email details. The Tribunal may give personal information to another person or agency (e.g. NSW Fair Trading) as required or authorised by law. A person has a right to access their personal information and may request that the Tribunal correct any inaccuracies.
