Provide the tenant's last known postal address. Include the tenant's telephone number and email address if known.

Note: Make sure the tenant is named correctly. If the information provided about the tenant is incorrect, this may delay proceedings or result in orders being made that are unenforceable.

4. ORDER DETAILS

A. WHAT ORDERS DO YOU WANT?

Tick the orders you are seeking under the Residential Tenancies Act 2010. You may request more than one order.

Check that the orders you are seeking are within the jurisdiction time limits. An application for termination and possession must be lodged within 30 days after the termination date specified in the termination notice.

If you are unsure which order to select, please contact NSW Fair Trading for assistance on 13 32 20.

B. REASONS FOR ASKING FOR THE ORDERS?

You must explain why you are lodging the application and seeking orders from NCAT. Your reasons must be detailed enough so that the respondent can understand what the dispute is about. Attach additional information on a separate sheet if there is insufficient space.

5. TERMINATION NOTICE

A. TERMINATION DATE

The termination date is the day specified in the termination notice as the day on which the residential tenancy agreement is terminated and by which the tenant must leave the rented premises.

B. DATE OF TERMINATION NOTICE

You must specify the date of the termination notice, that is the date the notice was made.

C. QUESTIONS ABOUT THE TERMINATION NOTICE

Tick all boxes that apply to the termination notice served on the tenant.

- Tenant more than 14 days in arrears on the Service Date

A termination notice given by a landlord on the ground of a breach of the agreement solely arising from failure to pay rent has no effect unless the rent has remained unpaid in breach of the agreement of not less than 14 days before the notice is given.

- Termination notice in writing

A valid termination notice must be given in writing.

- Notice states the address of the rented premises

A valid termination notice must include the address of the rented premises.

- Notice includes grounds of the breach

The termination notice must include the grounds of the breach so the terms of the breach are clear to the tenant.

- Notice specifies the day on which the tenancy agreement is terminated

The termination notice must clearly state the date when the residential tenancy agreement is to be terminated.

- Notice states that the tenant is not required to vacate if the tenant pays all rent owing or complies with the repayment plan

A 'non-payment of rent' termination notice must state that the tenant does not need to vacate the rented premises if they pay all the rent owing, or if they enter into and comply with a repayment plan.

- Rent owing has not been paid in full or agreed repayment plan not been fully complied with

The tenant has not cleared the arrears, entered into a repayment plan, or complied with a repayment plan they entered into with the landlord.

D. SERVICE OF TERMINATION NOTICE

The section requires the applicant to pick one of the valid service methods listed and the date when the tenant was given the termination notice. Termination notices cannot be served by text message or over the phone.

Notice served by post

The 'Service Date' will be 7 working days after the termination notice was posted to the tenant. For example, a termination notice posted on a Monday is deemed served on the Wednesday of the following week. Weekends, public holidays and bank holidays are not counted in the 7 days.

Notice served personally

The 'Service Date' is the date you handed the termination notice to the tenant in person, or to another person aged 16 years or over at the rented premises. Where there are two or more tenants, the termination notice may be given to either one and does not need to be given to both.

Notice placed in the letterbox

The 'Service Date' is the date you personally placed the termination notice in the tenant's letterbox in an envelope addressed to them.

Notices served by email

The 'Service Date' is the date the notice was emailed to the tenant (subject to the email delivery receipt notification).

The service of the notice by email is only allowed where the tenant has given their agreement for notices and other correspondence to be sent by email or sending it to an email address specified by the person for the service of documents of that kind (section 223 Residential Tenancies Act 2010).

6. LANGUAGE AND DISABILITY SUPPORT

A. SUPPORT REQUIREMENTS

If you have any support requirements for the hearing, please specify on the application form. Otherwise contact NCAT and ask to speak to a Deputy Divisional Registrar to discuss your individual needs.

B. INTERPRETER REQUIRED

NCAT can organise an interpreter upon request for parties to proceedings. If you need an interpreter for the hearing, tick the box and specify the language required.

7. APPLICATION CHECKLIST

I have attached all documents relevant to this application

Include all relevant information with your application. Refer to the information below on evidence and supporting materials. Do not include any confidential information with your application as copies of your attachments will be provided to the respondent.

I have made a copy of this application for my own records

Before lodging your application with NCAT you must make a copy of your application for your own records.

I have attached the application fee

You must pay the application fee when lodging your application. The fee schedule is available on the NCAT website.

Credit card payment can be made by submitting a credit card authority form with your application. Credit card surcharges apply. Cheque or money order payments are to be made out to 'NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal' or 'NCAT'. Payments can be made in person at any NCAT Registry or Service NSW Centre.
